

Jeremiah

Jeremiah 30:1-2; 31; 36:4-18

Jeremiah was a prophet, which means that God would send MESSAGES to Jeremiah about things that were going to happen.

One day, God spoke to Jeremiah and said, “Write in a book all the words I have spoken to you.” God wanted Jeremiah to write down everything God said so that the people could read God’s words.

God told Jeremiah about who He is. God said that he loved all the people so much, and He wanted to rescue them from their sins.

God also sent Jeremiah messages about how He wanted the people to live. God promised the people great things if they would stop doing wrong. But God also said He would have to punish them if they kept doing wrong.

Jeremiah wanted to obey God, and He needed help writing down everything God said.

So he called for a man named Baruch (pronounced “Bah-roo-k”).

Jeremiah repeated everything God had said and Baruch wrote it all down on a scroll.

Then, Baruch went into Jerusalem to read God’s Word to the people.

Since God is perfect, we know that His words are perfect. Now you and I can read all of God's words in the Bible. They will help us see exactly WHO God is and HOW He wants us to live.
