

Philip and the Ethiopian Leader

Acts 8:26-40

This is Philip (point to Philip).

Philip loved God.

God sent an angel to tell Philip to walk down the road.

Let's pretend to walk, like Philip.

(Everyone pretends to walk)

Philip heard horses.

Let's pretend to listen. (Everyone cup hand to ear)

Philip looked and saw a man reading in a chariot.

God told Philip to run up to the chariot.

Let's all run like Philip. (Everyone pretend to run like Philip)

Philip jumped in the chariot to tell the man all about God's words.

He told him, "Jesus loves you!"

Let me hear you say, "Jesus loves you!" (Everyone says "Jesus loves you!")

Philip told the man from far away all about Jesus because Philip knew the Bible is for everyone!

Let's say this together:

The Bible (make book with hands)

Is For Everyone! (point to others)
