

Fish and Loaves

Matthew 14:13-21; Mark 6:30-44; Luke 9:10-17; John 6:1-14

Wherever Jesus went, huge crowds gathered. Everyone wanted to hear what He had to say. One day, Jesus was teaching by the Sea of Galilee.

Thousands of people listened to him teach all day long! They stayed for so long that they missed dinner! The disciples told Jesus to send the people away so they could go find something to eat.

Jesus replied, “They don’t need to leave. You give them something to eat.” The disciples were confused because they didn’t have any food to give them.

Then, a little boy came up with five loaves of bread and two fish and gave them to Jesus’ disciples. The disciples asked, “What good is this with all these people?”

Jesus told the people to sit down on the grass. He held up the five loaves of bread and the two fish and thanked God for them. Then, he broke the bread and fish into pieces and gave them to the disciples.

The disciples started passing out the food. There was enough for everyone! 5,000 men plus thousands of women and children ate until they were full!

On top of that, there was enough left over to fill twelve large baskets!
